

Various scientific researches have been carried out in Kamioka. Historically, Kamiokande, Super-Kamiokande and KamLAND have contributed to neutrino physics substantially. In the initial half of this talk I will discuss these neutrino researches. In the later half, I will discuss researches on gravitational waves in KAGRA. KAGRA is a project trying to observe gravitational waves and to study the astrophysical sources that generate gravitational waves.